

Mission Statement of the Fire Science and Emergency Management Programs

The Mission of both the Fire Science, and the Emergency Management Program is to provide high quality professional education to our students through state of the art distance learning, classroom, and hands-on training. This education and training will have significant practical application in today's emergency services workforce.

We will accomplish this through participation with our Partnership Council, use of up to date training aids and by the continuing education of an enthusiastic faculty.