FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bargain Book Sale prices at Palm Beach State's annual event

(Lake Worth, Fla. – March 29, 2012) The Palm Beach State College chapter of the Association of Florida Colleges (AFC) and the Library Learning Resource Center will hold the annual book sale during National Library Week, which runs April 8-14. The book sale will be held April 10-12.

A great variety of books including bestsellers, new textbooks ($3), encyclopedia sets, withdrawn library books, computer books and cookbooks will start at .50 cents. All of the proceeds will benefit the Palm Beach State AFC chapter and the AFC Scholarship Fund for employees and students.

The sale will be open all three days from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Technology Center Courtyard at the Lake Worth campus, 4200 Congress Ave. Students, faculty, staff and the public are all welcome.

According to the American Library Association (ALA), National Library Week is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support. This year's theme is YOU BELONG @ your library. For more information, contact Marie Reddy at (561) 301-3120 or redm@palmbeachstate.edu.

About the Association of Florida Colleges: Organized in 1949, AFC is the professional association of Florida's 28 public community colleges, the Division of Community Colleges, their boards, employees, retirees, and associates. The mission of the Association is to actively promote, democratically represent, support and serve the individual members and institutions in their endeavors to provide their students and the citizens of Florida with the best possible comprehensive community college educational system.

Serving more than 51,000 students annually, Palm Beach State College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing bachelor's degrees, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Established in 1933 as Florida's first public community college, it offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
