

PALM BEACH STATE COLLEGE

Gain field experience while studying Costa Rica's beautiful ecosystems and wildlife diversity.

- Study the diverse freshwater and upland ecosystems within the Costa Rican rainforest and the estuarine ecosystems of Tortuguero.
- Examine human impact on rainforests and how habitats can be restored.
- Learn about ecology and species diversity from the coasts to cloud forests.

TRIP DATES: May 26- June 2nd, 2017

ESTIMATED TRIP PRICE: $2,300

Space is limited to 10

International Education Center

Study ABROAD

Travel to COSTA RICA

Summer A 2017

PCB 2350C - Tropical Ecology

Prerequisite- At least one college-level course in natural or physical science

- 3-credit Summer A course
- Hotels, meals, transfers and fees are included in the package price
- Students from all campuses welcome!

You can use financial aid to help pay for study abroad. Visit your financial aid advisor.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Robert Shuford

shufordr@palmbeachstate.edu

Jessica Miles

milesj@palmbeachstate.edu

www.palmbeachstate.edu/programs/EnvironmentalScience