Course Description:

Substance abuse is a worldwide problem facing our society today. Florida is by no means exempt from this problem.

The purpose of this course is to teach the knowledge, skills, and attitudes that will enable law enforcement, corrections, and correctional probation officers statewide to become more aware of the substance abuse problem currently facing our state.

Due to the broad nature of “substance abuse awareness,” this course is based on information identified by subject matter experts from a variety of fields (i.e., law enforcement, education, counseling, rehabilitation, pharmacology, etc.).
