

Two local artists exhibit at Palm Beach State art gallery

(Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. – Sept. 5, 2012) – Two accomplished local artists are collaborating for an exhibition at the Art Gallery at Eissey Campus at Palm Beach State College in Palm Beach Gardens.

Titled “other·word·ly: an exploration in multi-media,” the exhibit features more than 20 pieces of work by Hanne Niederhausen of Boca Raton and Terre Rybovich of Lantana. The pieces include drawing, mixed media paintings and printmaking.

The exhibit runs Sept. 18-Oct. 19 at the gallery located at 3160 PGA Blvd. An opening reception will be held from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 18. The reception and exhibit are free and open to the public.

The two artists stretched beyond their boundaries to test new artistic expressions or art forms. Niederhausen, a printmaker, painter and book artist, likes to challenge herself in different forms of artistic expression. Although she experiments and shifts her media techniques, she doesn't stray from her basic aesthetics and attitudes.

After years of making charcoal drawings based on imprints of her body, Rybovich tackles new art forms: three-dimensional drawings modeled on her torso, pastel drawings of birds in her backyard, and an abstract video. All are part of her ongoing quest to find a way forward for this world.

The gallery hours are Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. For more information, contact art gallery specialist Karla Walter at 561-207-5015 or visit www.palmbeachstate.edu/artgallerypbg.
