FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Entrepreneur Kim Champion to share business success strategies at Palm Beach State College

(BOCA RATON, Fla. – Sept. 12, 2012) – Boca Raton entrepreneur Kim Champion will share lessons she has learned over 25 years of business success at an upcoming seminar at Palm Beach State College's Center for Business and Entrepreneurship.

Champion will address the Women Entrepreneurs Network from 8:30 to 10 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 25, in Room HT103-B, Humanities & Technology building, Boca Raton campus. The founder and president of Champion Home Health Care, Champion has expanded her home care operation to seven offices throughout the state. She is involved with strategic planning for all Champion offices.

The session is open to all interested persons, and the cost is $15, payable by cash or check at the door. Details and directions are available at www.palmbeachstate.edu/CCE/business.

The Women Entrepreneurs Network at Palm Beach State offers opportunities for professional growth and business leads through networking seminars held the last Tuesday morning of each month. Keynote speakers, a buffet breakfast and free prizes are included.

Serving 49,000 students annually, Palm Beach State College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing bachelor's degrees, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Established in 1933 as Florida's first public community college, it offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
