PAINTING PROFESSOR TO EXHIBIT WORK AT PBCC GALLERY

Feminist painter and sculptor Carol Prusa will exhibit her work at the Art Gallery at Eissey Campus Sept. 9 through Oct. 18. The gallery is located at Palm Beach Community College in Palm Beach Gardens.

Prusa is an assistant professor of art at Florida Atlantic University. The body of work she will present, "What Connects Us Now?" uses silverpoint along with paint made from titanium white pigment, mars black pigment, powdered graphite, ground sulfur and acrylic binder on panel.

Prusa has been in numerous group and solo exhibitions, including the Coral Springs Art Museum and the Fort Lauderdale Art Museum this year. She has participated in artist residencies and received state and national grants to produce her work.

Most recently she was awarded a 2002 South Florida Cultural Consortium Fellowship for Visual and Media Artists. In 2000, Prusa lectured at the Feminist Art Conference in New York City and at the College Art Association Conference in Philadelphia. She has an M.F.A. from Drake University in Des Moines and teaches painting at FAU.

The artist's reception is Sept. 9 from 5 to 8 p.m. For more information, call the gallery at (561) 207-5008.
