William Howden elected chairperson of PBCC District Board of Trustees

William Howden has been elected the new chairperson of the Palm Beach Community College District Board of Trustees.

Howden, who retired from Pratt & Whitney in 1998 and now serves as a consultant for the company, was elected Aug. 13 as part of an annual reorganization of the five-member board. He replaces Carolyn Williams who served last year. Howden, a graduate of Florida State University, has been a member of the Board of Trustees since June 1999.

He serves on the Palm Beach County Work Force Development Board and the Florida School to Work Advisory Committee. He's also a member of the Florida Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

The Board of Trustees also elected Trustee David Talley, former president and chief executive officer for the Northern Palm Beaches Chamber of Commerce, to serve as vice chairperson. Gov. Jeb Bush appointed Talley to the Board of Trustees last September.
