PBCC student awarded $1,000 from Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation

Melissa Schlick, a second-year student at Palm Beach Community College, has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship from the Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation.

Schlick, a 2001 graduate of Wellington High School, is among 350 students at two-year colleges who received $1,000 scholarships this year through the foundation's Coca-Cola Two-Year Colleges Scholarship Program. All recipients had to demonstrate academic success and complete 100 hours of community service within the past year.

The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation received a grant in 2000 from the Joseph B. Whitehead Foundation in Atlanta, which was used to create the program. The late Joseph B. Whitehead was one of the original bottlers of Coca-Cola.

Schlick, of Loxahatchee, attends PBCC's Palm Beach Gardens location. She plans to become an elementary school teacher.
