FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Students to compete for three scholarships worth $1,500 in annual talent contest at Palm Beach Community College

(Lake Worth, Fla. – Jan. 20, 2004) The Palm Beach Community College Chapter of the National Council on Black American Affairs is hosting the 4th Annual Comedy and Talent Explosion Feb. 6 as part of Black History Month.

The event, hosted by popular South Florida Comedian Marvin Dixon, will be held at 8 p.m. at the Duncan Theatre, 4200 Congress Ave., Lake Worth.

PBCC students and area high school seniors will compete for three scholarships in the talent contest which has grown increasingly popular and competitive since it began in 2001. The scholarships include: first place, $600; second place, $500 and third place, $400. This year's talent includes dramatic monologues, singing and dance acts.

Tickets are $8 in advance and $10 at the door. For ticket information, call (561) 868-3127.

The National Council on Black American Affairs was founded in 1972 as an affiliate council of the American Association of Community Colleges. It works to maximize personal and career opportunities for African-American students, faculty, staff and administrators. Through a variety of intellectual, cultural and social activities, the Council provides a platform for personal growth, professional development and scholarships. The PBCC chapter of NCBA was established in 1997.
