Palm Beach Community College's Crossroads program celebrates 20 years

The program has helped more than 3,000 women since it began in 1984

Crossroads, a Palm Beach Community College program that helps women get prepared to enter the work force after years of relying on someone else's income or receiving public assistance, will celebrate its 20th anniversary March 30.

Themed "In Celebration of Women," the event will include a reception, silent auction and a concert featuring the PBCC Troubadours, a student singing group, and Amy Carol Webb, a popular South Florida "song weaver." The reception and silent auction begins at 5:30 p.m. and the concert begins at 7:30 p.m. at the Eissey Campus Theatre, 3160 PGA Blvd.

The event is sponsored by the Crossroads Business Partnership Council, a group of business and community representatives who provide support for the program.

Tickets are $15. They are available at the Eissey Campus Theatre Box Office, (561) 207-5900, or at the Crossroads office in Lake Worth, (561) 868-3586.

The Crossroads program serves women 35 and older. It offers career development seminars, information on educational and job training programs, and other services to help women discover their transferable skills and gain the confidence they need to pursue their career and educational goals. The program has helped more than 3,000 women since it began in 1984. For more information on the program, visit www.pbcc.edu/crossroads.
