YVONNE BOICE TO CHAIR PBCC BOCATECH OPENING

Community Event Planned for Nov. 9

BOCA RATON (Sept. 15, 2004) -- Palm Beach Community College Foundation board member Yvonne S. Boice has been named to chair the official Opening and Ribbon Cutting of the newly renovated BocaTech building at PBCC in Boca Raton on Nov. 9.

Boice, a well-known community leader and philanthropist, is president of Fugazy International Travel and the Shoppes at Village Pointe in Boca Raton. She serves on several boards and is well known for her expertise in organizing successful special events that benefit organizations throughout the community.

The Opening and Ribbon Cutting begins at 5:30 p.m. at BocaTech, according to Celeste Beck, provost of the PBCC Boca Raton campus. The former gymnasium building has been transformed into a multipurpose instructional facility with new classrooms, computer and tutoring labs, fitness facilities and a wellness center.

"We are all very excited to have Yvonne Boice on board to help us present this wonderful, newly renovated building to our students and the community. It's a real win-win for the College," said Dr. Beck.

The Boca Raton campus of PBCC is located at 3000 Saint Lucie Ave. For more information, call PBCC at 561-862-4401.
