FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Beautiful art pieces offered in time for the holidays

(November 24, 2004 – Palm Beach Gardens) Local artists and college art students will show and sell their ceramics pieces and pottery Dec. 10 and 11 at Palm Beach Community College in Palm Beach Gardens. The ceramic artists whose work will be for sale include Jean Goddeau, the artists with the Ceramics League of Palm Beach, past and present ceramics faculty from PBCC and award-winning ceramics students.

“This is a great opportunity to collect or buy a holiday gift of ceramic art and functional pottery items directly from the artists,” said Professor Nazare Feliciano, ceramics instructor at PBCC.

The show is sponsored for the first time by the student group, the Art Alliance. The Art Alliance hopes to make the sale an annual event, Prof. Feliciano said. The event is scheduled for Dec. 10 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Dec. 11 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Burt Reynolds Student Center, PBCC at Palm Beach Gardens, 3160 PGA Boulevard.

The Art Alliance’s mission is to develop appreciation of the visual arts through art workshops, art showing and selling events, lectures, museums and gallery tours. The Art Alliance shares its vision for the visual arts by reaching out to others in the community. Members promoted and helped create an all-Florida wildlife mural at Lincoln Park Elementary in Riviera Beach and manage the Tiny Treasures Gallery at Artigras in Abacoa.

For more information, call the Art Alliance advisor, Prof. Nazare Feliciano, at 561-207-5017.
