FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gospel Showcase to be held at Palm Beach Community College's Duncan Theatre April 17

(Lake Worth, Fla. - March 24, 2005) The Palm Beach Community College Chapter of the National Council on Black American Affairs will host its 7th Annual Gospel Showcase at 4 p.m. Sunday, April 17.

The show will include mime performances by a group from Antioch Baptist Church in Pompano Beach, a step performance by Disciples of Christ (DOC) youth step team, singing, dancing and poetry readings. Friscoe, a radio personality from B106.3 FM and X102.3 FM radio stations, will serve as master of ceremonies. The event will be held at the Duncan Theatre at PBCC in Lake Worth, 4200 Congress Avenue.

Tickets are $5 and may be purchased in advance by calling (561) 868-3046 or at the door the day of the show. Proceeds will be used for scholarships.

The National Council on Black American Affairs was founded in 1972 as an affiliate of the American Association of Community Colleges. It works to maximize personal and career opportunities for African-American students, faculty, staff and administrators. Through a variety of intellectual, cultural and social activities, the Council provides a platform for personal growth, professional development and scholarships. The PBCC chapter of NCBA was established in 1997.
