Palm Beach Community College Golf Classic Set for June 3 at The Breakers ‘Rees Jones’ Course

(Lake Worth, FL – April 25, 2005) – The Palm Beach Community College Foundation today announced that the annual PBCC Golf Classic will be held on Friday, June 3 at the new The Breakers “Rees Jones” Course.

Located at Breakers West on Okeechobee Blvd., just east of 441 (SR 7) in West Palm Beach, The Breakers “Rees Jones” Course is a dramatic $6 million project under the guidance of Rees Jones, a future Golf Hall of Famer who has been dubbed “The Open Doctor” for his highly acclaimed remodeling of seven U.S. Open courses. This course represents Jones’ first mark in Palm Beach County, which has more golf courses than any other county in the United States.

“Palm Beach Community College is the oldest and largest provider of higher education in Palm Beach County. It provides education and training to more than 48,000 students every year and serves thousands more through its cultural and recreational programs,” said Rick Schuster, executive director of the PBCC Foundation. “This annual golf event helps to build endowments for the Center for Early Learning on at PBCC in Palm Beach Gardens, provides scholarships for the Belle Glade location, and program support for our campuses in Lake Worth and Boca Raton.”

The planning committee for PBCC’s Golf Classic is chaired by David Collins and includes Celeste Beck, Grace Truman, Helen Franke, Jacie Keeley, Robin Johnson, Maria Vallejo, Patricia Anderson, Rick Schuster, Kirk Stetson and Sue Levine.

PBCC’s annual Golf Classic will feature several contests: Closest to the Pin, Longest Drive, Closest to the Line, and Guesstimate Your Drive. The format will be “two better balls of the foursome.” The fee to participate is $300 per person and includes lunch, green and cart fees, range balls, goodie bag and the awards reception at 5 p.m. Deadline to register is May 16.
