Paralegal association awards scholarships to PBCC students and honors professor for mentoring

Palm Beach Community College Professor Karen Brown Gattozzi has received the first-ever Mentoring Award from the West Palm Beach Chapter of the Paralegal Association of Florida.

Gattozzi was surprised with the award at a recent meeting of the association where the group also presented scholarships to three PBCC paralegal students. Sherry Maira and Nicole Webb each received $500 and Genevieve Smith received $750.

Every term Gattozzi, an attorney who teaches paralegal courses, takes students to the association's monthly meetings so that they can network with those in the organization and others in the legal community.

Gattozzi has taught at PBCC for more than 15 years. She received her juris doctorate from Suffolk University Law School.
