FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Authors Bob and Melinda Blanchard to speak at Palm Beach Community College

(Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. – Nov. 11, 2005) Authors Bob and Melinda Blanchard will speak at Palm Beach Community College to discuss their latest book, "Live What You Love: notes from an unusual life." The visit is part of their 30-city book tour that includes only three other cities in Florida and no others in Palm Beach County.

The event will be held at 12:30 p.m., Nov. 28 at the Meldon Lecture Hall at PBCC in Palm Beach Gardens, 3160 PGA Blvd. It is free and open to the public. Seating is limited, so please reserve your space by calling (561) 207-5811.

The Blanchards, who appeared on NBC's "Today Show" in October, will discuss their life and their book, which reveals how they found happiness and success by doing exactly what they wanted. Attendees will learn how the pair managed to get the best of both worlds: run a restaurant in the Caribbean island of Anguilla and spend some time among the verdant Vermont hills. The Blanchards will distribute Live What You Love buttons as well as provide samples of a treat from their new cookbook, "Cook What You Love." Married for more than 30 years, the couple also wrote the books "A Trip to the Beach" and "At Blanchard's Table."

The library at PBCC in Palm Beach Gardens is cosponsoring the event with the Sterling Publishing Company. It is one of several the library plans to present as part of its Author Talk series to expose students and the community to authors willing to share their stories and talk about their writing and experiences.

For more information, please call Maureen Riley at (561) 207-5810.
