FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Final auditions for Comedy and Talent Explosion set for Jan. 6

(Lake Worth, Fla. – Dec. 14, 2006) Show off your talent and compete for a chance to earn money for college!

The Palm Beach Community College chapter of the National Council on Black American Affairs will hold final auditions for the 2007 Comedy and Talent Explosion from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 6.

Auditions are open to all PBCC students and Palm Beach County high school seniors who plan to enroll in PBCC next school year. They will be held at the Student Activities Center at PBCC in Lake Worth, 4200 Congress Ave.

The talent contest, which is in its seventh year, will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 9, at the Duncan Theatre at PBCC in Lake Worth. Contestants will compete for three PBCC scholarships: $600 for first place, $500 for second place and $400 for third place.

The National Council on Black American Affairs was founded in 1972 as an affiliate of the American Association of Community Colleges. It works to maximize personal and career opportunities for African-American students, faculty, staff and administrators. Through a variety of intellectual, cultural and social activities, the Council provides a platform for personal growth, professional development and scholarship. The PBCC chapter of NCBA was established in 1997.
