PBCC to honor three individuals, organization at King Celebration Jan. 11

Stuart Attorney Willie E. Gary will be the keynote speaker

(Lake Worth, Fla – Jan. 4, 2007) As part of its 8th annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Breakfast on Thursday, Jan. 11, Palm Beach Community College will honor three individuals and an organization for their outstanding leadership and work to improve the lives of others, particularly the underserved, in Palm Beach County.

Recipients of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Leadership awards are: Reginald Durandisse, founder and chief executive officer of Lake Worth-based For the Children, Inc.; Palm Beach County Sheriff's Lt. Beverly Elliott Morrison; PBCC at Palm Beach Gardens student Roma Kapadia and the Martin Luther King, Jr. Coordinating Committee, a West Palm Beach organization led by Executive Director Edith Bush.

Prominent Stuart Attorney Willie E. Gary will be the keynote speaker. The breakfast, themed "Bringing Unity to the Community," will be held at 7:30 a.m. at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Plaza at PBCC in Lake Worth, 4200 Congress Ave.
