

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Afternoon of pampering pays off in student scholarships

(April 5, 2007 – Lake Worth) BallenIsles Country Club is the setting for an afternoon of luxury and pampering designed to raise funds for student scholarships at Palm Beach Community College. Dubbed “The Finer Things” by organizers at the PBCC Foundation, the event runs May 17 from 1-5 p.m. and includes:

- Sushi demo and tasting by the stylishly edgy, RA Sushi Bar and Restaurant
- Sensory wine tasting & food pairing by world-class Wine Styles Shop
- The 4 C’s and more of diamonds
- Flower arranging by designing women
- Spa sampler package to enhance your natural beauty and feel fabulous:
 - Relaxing chair massage and reflexology
 - Makeup consultation
 - Aromatherapy for a sense of balance

The event culminates in a private cocktail reception and silent auction from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The cost is $125 per person. To register or for more information, call 561-868-3450 – Gina at the Foundation office.

Media contact:

Toni Wolf

College Relations & Marketing Specialist

Palm Beach Community College

561-868-3129

Editor’s note: For a photo of the Finer Things committee, go to:

<http://www.pbcc.edu/Images/Marketing/golfcommittee.jpg>

From left, Nicole Flier, Barbara Marsh, Phyllis Maas, Carolina Iglesias, Helen Franke, Ana Thomas, Bobbi Marsh.