FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palm Beach Community College to hold Virtual Job Fair

(Boca Raton, Fla. – April 12, 2007) Job seekers in Palm Beach County will have an opportunity to interview for jobs without leaving their house.

Palm Beach Community College is holding its third annual Virtual Job Fair April 17-19. During the three-day period, more than 40 employers will enter online chat rooms set up by PBCC to answer live questions from applicants. PBCC students or anyone who is looking for a job and has access to a computer can participate by visiting www.pbcc.edu/career.

In addition to the opportunity to chat live with potential employers, PBCC's Virtual Job Fair Web site provides profiles of participating employers and a schedule of when the recruiters will be available to chat, with information accessible 24 hours a day. Job seekers also can upload their resume.

For more information, please call (561) 862-4325.

About Palm Beach Community College: Serving more than 46,000 students annually, Palm Beach Community College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing associate degrees, professional certificates, career and customized training and lifelong learning. Florida's first public community college, PBCC offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
