PGA Corridor Association establishes major scholarship at PBCC

(Sept. 13, 2007 – Palm Beach Gardens) The PGA Corridor Association, a group of key business owners along the PGA Boulevard corridor, has made a three-year commitment to award scholarships to students at Palm Beach Community College in Palm Beach Gardens. The $2,500 annual scholarship will be awarded to one student each year who is majoring in a business-related profession. Students pursuing an associate in arts degree or an associate in science degree are eligible. The $7,500 total should be matched by state funds, thus doubling the amount to $15,000.

This is the first time that the PGA Corridor Association has offered a scholarship. The organization's mission is to preserve, enhance and promote the PGA Corridor as the premier business location of Northern Palm Beach County. Palm Beach Community College is a member of the association.

To apply for the scholarship, contact the PBCC Foundation at 561-868-3450.
