FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Crossroads at PBCC presents 8th annual “In Celebration of Women” to commemorate Women’s History Month

(Lake Worth, Fla. – Feb 26, 2008) In observance of Women’s History Month, Crossroads at Palm Beach Community College will present “In Celebration of Women” on Thursday, March 27 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on the first floor of the Humanities Building, Lake Worth campus.

Now in its eighth year, “In Celebration of Women” showcases the talents of phenomenal women in a diverse, multicultural environment. Local women artists will participate in storytelling, poetry, music and dance. A creative arts room will have paintings, drawings, scrapbooks and fabric art on display. The event is free and open to the public.

In 1987 Congress declared the month of March Women’s History Month in recognition of the contributions and achievements of women in the United States.

Crossroads at PBCC is a grant-funded program helping separated, divorced or widowed women 35 years and older take steps toward becoming more economically self-sufficient through job readiness workshops, career/life coaching, vocational assessment and more. For more information call (561) 868-3586 or visit: www.pbcc.edu/crossroads.xml.

Palm Beach Community College, Florida’s first public community college, is celebrating its 75th anniversary throughout 2008. The largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, PBCC serves more than 45,000 students annually through its associate degrees, professional certificates, career and customized training and lifelong learning. The College offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
