

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Crossroads at PBCC presents 10th annual Women’s History event, “In Celebration of Women”

(Lake Worth, Fla. – Feb. 23, 2009) In observance of Women’s History Month, Crossroads at Palm Beach Community College will present “In Celebration of Women” on Thursday, March 5 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. on the first floor of the Humanities Building, PBCC at Lake Worth.

Now in its tenth year, “In Celebration of Women” showcases the talents of phenomenal women connected to Crossroads in a diverse, multicultural environment. With a theme “We are all Sisters,” talents will include music, a photography exhibit, fine art and crafts, a magic act, original poetry, story sharing and dance by Crossroads alumni and friends. The event is free and open to the public.

In 1987 Congress declared the month of March Women’s History Month in recognition of the contributions and achievements of women in the United States. Crossroads at PBCC is a grant-funded program helping separated, divorced or widowed women 35 years and older take steps toward becoming more economically self-sufficient through job readiness workshops, career/life coaching, vocational assessment and more. This year, Crossroads celebrates 25 years at PBCC.

For more information call (561) 868-3586 or visit: www.pbcc.edu/crossroads.xml.

[more]

About Palm Beach Community College: Serving more than 46,000 students annually, Palm Beach Community College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Florida's first public community college, PBCC offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.

####

PHOTO CAPTION: A specialty quilt made by artist JoAnn Donato, one of several exhibitors whose work will be featured in the fine art and crafts exhibit.

Media Contact:

Diana Paliuca
College Relations and Marketing Specialist
561-868-3950