FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PBCC celebrates National Library Week with annual book sale

(Lake Worth, Fla. – March 17, 2009) Palm Beach Community College Chapter of the Florida Association of Community Colleges (FACC) will hold its annual book sale during National Library Week, which lasts April 12 – 18. The book sale will be held on April 13 – 14 in the Technology Center Courtyard, PBCC at Lake Worth, 4200 Congress Ave. On both days, it will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Library books, textbooks, fiction, reference materials, video tapes and much more will be for sale to benefit the PBCC FACC Chapter and the FACC Scholarship Fund for employees and students.

According to the American Library Association (ALA), National Library Week is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support. This year's theme is Worlds connect @ your library.

For more information, contact Marie Reddy at (561) 301-3120 or redm@pbcc.edu.

About the Florida Association of Community Colleges: Organized in 1949, FACC is the professional association of Florida's 28 public community colleges, the Division of Community Colleges, their boards, employees, retirees, and associates. The mission of the Association is to actively promote, democratically represent, support and serve the individual members and institutions in their endeavors to provide their students and the citizens of Florida with the best possible comprehensive community college educational system.

About Palm Beach Community College: Serving more than 46,000 students annually, Palm Beach Community College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Florida's first public community college, PBCC offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
