

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Wallace named general counsel for Palm Beach Community College

(Lake Worth, Fla. – Sept. 8, 2009) Denise Wallace has been appointed the new general counsel for Palm Beach Community College.

Wallace comes to PBCC from the city of Miami where she served as assistant city attorney and, prior to that, director of policy and legislation. She has more than 19 years of experience as an attorney in government and private practice. She has served as assistant school board attorney for Miami-Dade County Public Schools; senior assistant attorney general for the Office of the Florida Attorney General, Office of Civil Rights; and assistant attorney general for the Office of the Illinois Attorney General, General Law Unit.

Wallace received her Juris Doctorate from Southern University Law Center in Baton Rouge, La. She also holds a Master of Laws degree in intercultural human rights from St. Thomas University School of Law where she graduated summa cum laude and was class valedictorian. She has a bachelor's degree in journalism/English from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

About Palm Beach Community College: Serving more than 49,000 students annually, Palm Beach Community College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Florida's first public community college, PBCC offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.

Editor's note: Please contact the College Relations and Marketing office for a high resolution photo of Denise Wallace.

Media contact:

Tabatha B. McDonald
College Relations and Marketing Specialist
(561) 868-3127