

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PBCC to host Careers in Communication event at Boca Raton

(Boca Raton, Fla. – Sept. 24, 2009) The Palm Beach Community College Career Center at Boca Raton is hosting Careers in Communication, Oct. 6, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., in the Humanities & Technology building, room 103.

An eight-member panel of industry professionals from local communication companies will attend the event: Jacqueline Carini, freelance photojournalist; Dan Doskey, production manager at Visual Evidence, Inc.; Logan Lenz, founder/president of Endagon Enterprises; Holly Policy Perella, marketing & PR coordinator at Gunster Attorneys at Law; Liza Flores, general manager at Radio Fiesta; Leslie Gray Streeter, pop culture writer at the Palm Beach Post; Nora Konopka, publisher of Engineering & Environmental Sciences at Taylor & Francis/CRC Press; and Brandy Wade, editorial manager at ProQuest.

The panelists will answer questions on a variety of topics such as advertising, blogging, editing, journalism, public relations, research, news casting, social media/social network marketing and TV/film production. This event is free and open to the public.

This is just one of many resources that the Career Centers offer to current students and alumni. For more information, visit www.pbcc.edu/Career.xml or call 561-862-4356.

Palm Beach Community College will become Palm Beach State College in 2010. Serving more than 49,000 students annually, it is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Established in 1933 as Florida's first public community college, it offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
