FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

“Art of Ink in America – 2010, Florida, USA” features works of contemporary calligraphy at The Art Gallery at Eissey Campus Jan. 5 – Feb. 5

(Palm Beach Gardens – Dec. 18, 2010) The Art Gallery at Eissey Campus on the PBCC Palm Beach Gardens campus will open its first exhibition for 2010 with the “Art of Ink in America – 2010, Florida, USA” from Jan. 5 through Feb. 5. Forty-five members of the Art of Ink in American Society will present approximately 60 works of art.

Contemporary calligraphers reside all over the world. Their styles vary from letter-writing and non-letter calligraphy to western abstract calligraphy. This modernized calligraphy is called Contemporary Calligraphic Art. Contemporary calligraphy departs from traditional styles and colors, harmonizing Asian art with the life and philosophy of our times.

The opening reception for the exhibition is Tuesday, Jan. 12 from 5 to 8 p.m. Master Sun Wuk Kim will give a calligraphy demonstration from 5 to 6 p.m. The exhibit and reception are free and open to the public. The gallery is located in the arts and humanities building, room 113. Gallery hours are Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Tuesday 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Friday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information call (561) 207-5015.

Palm Beach Community College will become Palm Beach State College in 2010. Serving more than 49,000 students annually, it is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Established as Florida's first public community college, it offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
