FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palm Beach State to host HIV/AIDS Documentary, Q&A with Filmmaker

(Lake Worth, Fla. - Feb. 2, 2010) Palm Beach State College is hosting a free screening of the documentary "House Of Numbers," a rewritten story of the HIV/AIDS epidemic, Feb. 18 at 6 p.m. at the Duncan Theatre, 4200 Congress Ave., Lake Worth.

Palm Beach State's massage therapy program, the Gay-Straight Alliance student club and the Boca Raton campus diversity committee are sponsoring the film as well as a question and answer session to engage in a discussion with the filmmaker.

According to the film's Web site, the documentary addresses the questions "What is HIV? What is AIDS? What is being done to cure it?" The film looks at the history of the AIDS epidemic and why there is still no cure for the disease. To learn more about the Brent W. Leung film and to watch the trailer, visit www.houseofnumbers.com.

For more information on the film screening, contact the massage therapy department at 561-862-4734 or 561-862-4720.

Serving more than 49,000 students annually, Palm Beach State College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Established in 1933 as Florida's first public community college, it offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
