FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palm Beach State celebrates National Library Week with annual book sale

(Lake Worth, Fla. – March 23, 2010) The Palm Beach State College Chapter of the Florida Association of Community Colleges (FACC) will hold its annual book sale during National Library Week, which runs April 11-17. The book sale will be held April 12-13 in the Technology Center Courtyard at the Lake Worth campus, 4200 Congress Ave.

On both days, the sale will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. offering a great variety of books, including bestsellers, textbooks, encyclopedia sets, library books, computer books and cookbooks starting at 50 cents each. History, vintage literature from the 30s and 40s, art and music books also will be sold this year. All of the proceeds will benefit the Palm Beach State FACC Chapter and the FACC Scholarship Fund for employees and students.

According to the American Library Association (ALA), National Library Week is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support. This year's theme is Communities thrive @ your library. For more information, contact Marie Reddy at (561) 301-3120 or redm@palmbeachstate.edu.

About the Florida Association of Community Colleges: Organized in 1949, FACC is the professional association of Florida's 28 public community colleges, the Division of Community Colleges, their boards, employees, retirees, and associates. The mission of the Association is to actively promote, democratically represent, support and serve the individual members and institutions in their endeavors to provide their students and the citizens of Florida with the best possible comprehensive community college educational system.

Serving more than 50,000 students annually, Palm Beach State College is the largest institution of higher education in Palm Beach County, providing the bachelor's degree, associate degrees, professional certificates, career training and lifelong learning. Established in 1933 as Florida's first public community college, it offers more than 100 programs of study at locations in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade.
