

Veterans' open house scheduled at Palm Beach State

(Lake Worth, Fla. – Sept. 2, 2010) Palm Beach State College is hosting an open house for veterans, Sept. 22, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. in the Education and Training Center (ETA), Lake Worth campus, 4200 Congress Ave.

Recently discharged veterans who served in Afghanistan (Operation Enduring Freedom) and Iraq (Operation Iraqi Freedom), and other veterans are encouraged to attend the open house to learn about degrees and programs offered at Palm Beach State.

College representatives from several departments that specifically support veterans will be at the open house to explain the processes of enrolling at Palm Beach State. They include the Veterans' Center, a veterans' financial aid representative, and the Veterans' Student Union. Other Palm Beach State departments that will be there include Admissions, Financial Aid, Disability Support Services, Counseling Center, Career Center and the Bachelor of Applied Science in Supervision and Management degree program representatives.
