

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 21, 2003

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO HOST COMMUNITY FORUM AT LAKE WORTH HIGH SCHOOL

Palm Beach Community College is hosting a community forum April 2 as part of its ongoing outreach efforts.

The forum will be held from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the cafeteria at Lake Worth High School, 1701 Lake Worth Road.

PBCC personnel will be on hand to provide information on various degree and training programs, admissions and financial assistance as well as information about employment opportunities and small contract opportunities with PBCC.

PBCC will also receive input from the community on how the College can expand or improve its programs or services.

The forum is free and open to the public. Spanish and Creole language translators will be available.

For more information, call 967-7222.

About Palm Beach Community College:

Palm Beach Community College, a richly diverse comprehensive two-year institution with a history of achievement since 1933, offers more than 100 programs of study at campuses in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Belle Glade and Palm Beach Gardens. PBCC is dedicated to serving the educational needs of Palm Beach County by providing associate degrees in arts and science, professional certificates, workforce development and lifelong learning.

Contact:

Tabatha McDonald

College Relations and Marketing Specialist

(561) 868-3127