

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA ADVISORY

March 21, 2003

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE EXPERTS AVAILABLE TO DISCUSS WAR WITH IRAQ

As the United States continues the war with Iraq, the following experts at Palm Beach Community College are available to provide analysis:

Victor Aikhionbare, Ph.D., teaches political science and international relations. His doctorate is in political science with an emphasis on international law. His research focuses on the issues of war and peace in contemporary international relations. He also has studied the Middle East in regional context. Contact him at (561) 868-3336.

Andrew Luma, Ph.D., teaches classes in international relations and American government. His doctorate is in political science with a focus on international relations. His research is on politics in the Third World. His primary interests are on issues including terrorism, nuclear proliferation and development. Contact him at (561) 207-5078.

Richard Yinger, Ph.D., teaches sociology, death and dying and marriage and the family. He can speak about the war from a sociological standpoint. Contact him at (561) 868-3334.

About Palm Beach Community College:

Palm Beach Community College, a richly diverse comprehensive two-year institution with a history of achievement since 1933, offers more than 100 programs of study at campuses in Lake Worth, Boca Raton, Belle Glade and Palm Beach Gardens. PBCC is dedicated to serving the educational needs of Palm Beach County by providing associate degrees in arts and science, professional certificates, workforce development and lifelong learning.

If you need to reach any of these professors over the weekend, contact Grace Truman, director of college relations and marketing, (561) 601-7138.