FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palm Beach Community College student organization to co-sponsor National HIV Testing Day

Event features free HIV testing and counseling, a give-a-way, speakers, music and information on HIV/AIDS

(Lake Worth, Fla. – June 12, 2003) A student organization at Palm Beach Community College is leading a charge to help stop the spread of the virus that leads to AIDS.

Student Trainers for AIDS Related Education (S.T.A.R.E) - a peer education group - will partner this month with the Palm Beach County Health Department and the Florida HIV/AIDS Minority Network to provide free HIV testing/counseling and information on HIV and AIDS.

The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. June 26 in the Technology Center Courtyard at PBCC in Lake Worth, 4200 Congress Ave. The event, held in recognition of National HIV Testing Day, is free and open to the public.

Speakers include Rafael Duran, Jr., regional program manager for the Comprehensive AIDS Program (CAP), Annette Murzike- Dunn, membership coordinator, and Victor Jones, president of the planning committee, for the Palm Beach County HIV CARE Council.
