Palm Beach Community College Celebrates “70 Years of Shaping the Future”

70th Anniversary Open House for Alumni Scheduled for November 6th at PBCC’s New $25M Education & Training Center

(Lake Worth, FL – August 7, 2003) The new, $25 million state-of-the-art Education and Training Center at Palm Beach Community College will be the setting for a celebration of PBCC’s 70th anniversary. When it opened in 1933, during the depths of the Great Depression, PBCC was Florida’s first public community college.

The 70th anniversary theme – “70 Years of Shaping the Future” – emphasizes the vital role that PBCC continues to play in South Florida.

WHEN:

November 6th, between 4 and 7 p.m.

WHERE:

PBCC’s Education and Training Center is located on the southeast corner of Congress Ave. and Lake Worth Road at PBCC in Lake Worth.

WHO:

Alumni, current and past faculty and staff members and friends of PBCC are invited to attend the college’s 70th anniversary celebration. Advance notice and/or reservations are not required.

WHAT:

Highlights of PBCC’S 70th anniversary celebration will include:

- Multimedia historical exhibits
- PBCC musical ensembles performing popular songs from the last 70 years
- 70th anniversary memories video and 50-story anthologies
- PBCC students in period costume
- “Reunion Corner”: a place to swap stories and greet old friends
- Refreshments and mementos
