FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Huge Plant Sale a “Garden Party” Unique holiday gifts will be available

(Palm Beach Gardens, FL – Nov. 7, 2003) At least 20 local vendors will be on hand for one of the largest plant sales in the area on Nov. 22 & 23, sponsored by the horticulture program at Palm Beach Community College and the TGOA Palm Beach Garden Club.

“We’ll have items for sale for gardeners of any area of interest, from 99-cent specials to unusual and large specimens,” said George Rogers, Ph.D., director of the horticulture program at the College. “You can also expect garden advice, good conversation, refreshments, a raffle—all the elements of a garden party.”

The garden club will raffle garden tools plus the PBCC Plant Propagation class and the campus nursery will be open for sales on the beautifully landscaped campus in Palm Beach Gardens. The “festival of plants” will include:
unique holiday gifts

- crafts
- landscaping plants
- trees and shrubs
- palms, perennials, and bedding plants
- poinsettias
- ornamentals
- shade and indoor plants
- bonsai
- orchids
- garden accessories
- 99-cent plants---oodles of them

The plant sale is from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 22, and from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 23 at PBCC in Palm Beach Gardens, 3160 PGA Blvd. Admission is free, and parking is plentiful. Proceeds will benefit the PBCC horticulture program. For more information, call George Rogers at (561) 207-5052.
