Effective May 2016 (20163)

ANT2100L Introduction to Archeology Lab (1 credit, 2 lab contact hours, AW Grading System, Coreq of ANT2100 with grade of C, Medical Accident Insurance)

3

Justification: An Archaeology Lab provides optional field experience, puts methods into practice and enhance student learning through application. Provides potential paid internship opportunities with the Palm Beach County Historic Preservation/ Archaeology following the course (letter of interest available). Credit would transfer to another college or university.

Dr. Pedersen has approved the early effective date since this is typically a summer term course.

Justification: Dean Richie reported to Deans' Council that the seven of the 16 PSAV Plumbing apprenticeship courses have has hit the five-year rule (no enrollment in Five Years) and must be inactivated. Since there are no students in the program and no prospects for future participants, she asked that this program be removed from the College offerings. The lab space is being used for other activities. This course and program action is effective January 2016.
