

PALM BEACH STATE COLLEGE

CERTIFICATION OF DISPLACEMENT DUE TO NATURAL DISASTER FOR FEE EXEMPTION

To assist students displaced from a hurricane, Palm Beach State College is pleased to provide access to in-state tuition rates to those affected by hurricanes Harvey, Irma, and Maria.

Under the “2017 Hurricane Displaced Student Tuition Exemption,” approved students will be eligible for in-state tuition rates through the summer 2018 term.

To be eligible for the exemption, applicants must meet the following conditions:

1. Apply for admission and be admitted to Palm Beach State College.
2. Reside in an area declared under a state of emergency/disaster as result of either Hurricane Harvey, Irma or Maria. Such areas may include but are not limited to: Houston, Texas, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.
3. Provide proof of residency from the hurricane affected area (see “A” for acceptable documents).
4. Provide proof of relocation/temporary stay within the Palm Beach State College service area.

A student receiving this out-of-state fee exemption is not eligible for state financial aid (i.e.: Bright Futures), and will not be classified or reported as a Florida resident for tuition purposes.

This application is not a substitution for official documentation for classification for Florida residency for tuition purposes.

A. Claimant must provide at least one of the following as documented proof of relocation from a hurricane displaced area:

1. Current student identification card
2. Current driver’s license
3. Recent grade report
4. Unofficial high school or college transcript

Or

5. Other _____
