About the Program
Palm Beach State College offers an Associate of Science degree in Sonography and a four semester College Credit Certificate. It is a career-oriented college-level program consisting of classroom, lab and clinical experience. The mission of the Program is to graduate students with entry level employment skills required of a Sonographer.

The program has a 14-month, competency-based curriculum which includes practical experience in local hospitals and is designed to develop technical proficiency through extensive clinical exposure. The program is designed to begin in the fall term each year and requires a full-time commitment. Those seeking an Associate degree in Sonography should take the general education courses before the core courses.

What are the duties of a Sonographer?
A Diagnostic Medical Sonographer uses creativity and advanced technological ultrasound equipment to produce images of the body. Sonographers use high frequency sound waves to demonstrate body parts and assist the physician in the diagnosis of medical abnormalities. The sonographer must have an exceptional understanding of human anatomy and an artistic, creative self-directed approach for locating and demonstrating anatomy and pathology.

What is the job outlook?
Excellent. The demand for diagnostic imaging personnel is expected to increase sharply, according to the U.S. Department of Labor. Salary ranges for graduates of such programs vary by region. The median annual wage for diagnostic medical sonographers was $72,510 in May 2018. Job Outlook, 2016-26 is 17% (Much faster than average)

What are the costs for the program?
Florida resident tuition costs $101.00 per credit hour and the program requires 77 credit hours. Total tuition costs for the program are approximately $7,770.00. Books, laboratory fees, uniforms, liability insurance, and professional association membership dues total approximately $1,150.00. Transportation considerations for attendance to clinical training typically range between $750 - $1,250 (Gas, oil, maint.) Total cost: $9,774 - $10,274. The Certificate program would be about $2,400.00 less.

After graduation from the program, how can I further my education?
As a profession, Sonography emphasizes career development which leads to many additional ARDMS certifications. For further information see the American Registry of Diagnostic Medical Sonographers website at http://ardms.org
