Memory Skills for Law Enforcement

Criminal Justice Institute
Lake Worth Campus
April 15, 2020: 8 Hour Block
8am-5pm
Incentive or Mandatory
No Fee Region XII – Non-Region-TBD

Course Description:
This eight-hour course empowers law enforcement personnel to improve their memory and, as a result, increase their efficiency and productivity. Students will learn how to think quickly and clearly, recall important information, such as license plate numbers, names and faces, and confidently present cases in court without using notes. Memory can be improved, and this course will help all law enforcement officials, including patrol officers, homicide detectives and dispatchers.

Instructor P. Mellor Bio:
A finalist in the USA Memory Championship in New York City, 50+ aged Mellor remembered the names of over 90 people in less than 15 minutes, recalled the exact order of over 100 single-digit numbers after reviewing them for less than five minutes, and recalled the exact order of a shuffled deck of playing cards after less than a three-and-a-half-minute review. Don’t let the gray hair fool you, Mellor’s memory is sharper than ever. He’s learned quite a few memory techniques which he enthusiastically shares with audiences throughout the United States and Canada. His popular seminars have been presented to sheriffs/Law Enforcement personnel and salespeople; politicians and postal workers; lawyers and lay people. From Austin to Anchorage, Miami to Minneapolis, Hartford to Honolulu, and many, many points in between, audiences have laughed and learned from Paul Mellor’s memorable seminars.
