Dear Readers,

We are pleased to present the Fall 2011 edition of Sabiduría and would like to congratulate the two authors whose papers are published in it. It was a tough and lengthy selection process again this semester and we appreciate everyone's patience during this time. As each issue of Sabiduría is published, we hope to continue to grow, improve and represent the best that Palm Beach State Honors College has to offer.

As always, we'd like to thank the administration and faculty that go above and beyond to make this publication possible. First and foremost, thank you to Marcella Montesinos, who wears many, many hats. Thanks also to Professor Diane Baird for her instrumental help in the final edits of these papers. We would also like to thank Betty Dente and Clarisse May, whose behind-the-scenes efforts are essential and appreciated. Thanks again to all of our reviewers for a job well done and to each writer who was brave enough to submit their work.

At the end of the day, it is the students of the Honors College who submit, review and organize Sabiduría and they deserve our final thanks. Keep up the good work!

Your Fall 2011 Editorial Staff,

Maria M. Chapado, Jonathan Murphy, and Kim Huston Stingo
