Library Study Room Guidelines

- Library study rooms are primarily intended for academic purposes.
- The Student Code of Conduct (Board Rule 6HX 18-3.35; Student Handbook pp. 20-7) and the Library Code of Conduct are in effect.
- Groups or individuals who are disruptive or sleeping may be asked to leave the room.
- Study rooms are not soundproof. Loud conversation or volume is not permitted.
- Study room capacity varies by room and may not be exceeded.
- Study rooms must be reserved using the D!BS system, and may be reserved up to six (6) days in advance.
- Only currently enrolled students may reserve study rooms, unless approved by the library director.
- Students are limited to two active (2) reservations per day, and up to four (4) active reservations per week.
- A valid PantherCard and Palm Beach State email address are required.
- Food & Drink: No hot food, meals, salads, or drinks in disposable cups (with or without lids) are permitted. Cold snack size food such as chips, pretzels, and candy bars, as well as drinks in spill-proof containers or capped bottles are okay.
- Reservations will be canceled by staff after fifteen (15) minutes for late arrivals.
- Personal belongings left unattended for more than fifteen (15) minutes will be removed by Campus Security.
