

Question: Is attendance to the Pre-proposal Conference mandatory?

Answer: It is not required but strongly recommended.

Question: What is the purpose in asking for our company financials? Also, what financials are required?

Answer: Financials allow the College to ensure the company they hire is financially sound and does not propose a risk to the College as services will be provided prior to payment. Either a CPA certified financial statement or the attached financial attestation form are acceptable.